Dear,

I am glad to learn about a job opportunity in Manual QA testers company, for a software tester.

I think I can provide your company with the essential skills to effectively accomplish the missions specific to this profession.

First of all, I would like to tell you that my profile corresponds well to the qualities expected to be a tester. Indeed, in addition to my know-how, I can rely on my sense of responsibility and my rigour.

I am also an open person with an easy sense of interpersonal skills and a real desire to learn. I think these are essential values to achieve the level of performance expected by your company.

Moreover, as my curriculum vitae attached to this letter indicates, my professional background has enabled me to consolidate the skills necessary for the job of tester. Faced with the unexpected and necessities of this profession, I have always been able to respond to them in complete autonomy.

Joining your company is for me a real challenge for my future and I sincerely hope that my profile will hold your full attention. I am at your disposal for any additional questions and I am at your disposal for a possible interview.

Please accept, Madam, Sir, the expression of my sincere greetings.
